1. Is there a specific sexual fantasy you had in the past that you made come true?

One fantasy that I actually got to experience was an all-girl orgy and doing a pussy eating train. I was in Vegas for my 24th birthday and had an after-party back at my hotel room with my friends. Things got really heated, and we all ended up sexing each other.

2. What's something you think everyone should do at least once in their life?

Traveling alone. One of the best choices I ever made was visiting places alone and being on my own time and doing exactly what I wanted. Also, it shows you how strong and independent you can be.

3. What's your opinion on outdoor sex?

I think outdoor sex is amazing. Outside but still private like a balcony, patio, or pool.

4. What's one thing that's made you feel good in bed that you weren't expecting?

One thing I never thought I'd enjoy so much was getting my ass ate. Call me immature, but I always thought I wouldn't like it then after I experienced it... GAME CHANGER!

Being open to new ideas & different genders can be so beautiful.

5. What has making adult entertainment taught you about sex, sexuality, and human desire?

The adult industry has taught me that we don't know what we actually like until we at least try it. Being open to new ideas and different genders can be so beautiful. Also, it has shown me how powerful sex is, good sex can warp your mind if you allow it. I feel like I have given people unforgettable sexual experiences that have caused them to behave extremely in both negative and positive ways. Good pussy makes people crazy. LOL

6. What do you wish you knew more about?

Healing people through sex. To be more in tune with how different smells, oils, and sounds stimulate our senses. I know sex can be spiritual, and I would like to know how I can increase my vibrations.

7. Do you consider adult entertainment a form of art? Why or why not?

Sex is definitely an art. When we are recording vids, we are using our bodies to connect with the world. The facial expressions, the sounds we make, the energy we are giving off is artistic. Not just anyone can pull it off, it takes talent.

8. What's something you're passionate about that you wish EVERYONE was also passionate about?

I wish everyone was passionate about giving! Giving back unto others, giving orgasms, giving love. I have been meeting so many takers, and I wish the world was more balanced. When we give, we find satisfaction in that. There's peace in giving to others.

1. What's one thing about you that surprises people?

My personable reaction to my fans. I take the time to get to know you. If you are purchasing any merchandise from me at a convention, then I can find out what it is you like and are looking for. I enjoy talking with them. I will sometimes spend 10 minutes per fan just so they feel important that day. Just in case no one else made them feel that way, baby.

2. What's something not taught in school Sex-Ed classes but should be taught?

How to keep your body healthy as far as ph balance with women. We need to be more educated with our bodies. I have noticed most civilian women, those women not in the adult biz, don't know much about vaginal care until they come into this industry. It's disconcerting knowing most women in this world are just not knowledgeable at all with how they should take care of themselves. If they taught this in school, we would not have to teach you when you get into adult entertainment.

3. If you could win an Olympic medal for any sport, real or fake, what would it be?

Zipline racing. It seems extremely dangerous, yes, I know. I am an adrenaline junky—I love living life on the edge. Flying in the air racing across stormy meadows in Greece or beautiful Mountains in Tuscany, Italy. I would win the Olympic medal! I'm very swift and full of life. CHAMPION!

4. What is it that you enjoy the most during sex?

Dirty talk. I enjoy someone getting in my head and creating this fantasy that may not happen in reality. If you can not penetrate my mind mentally, there will be no orgasm. I enjoy a Dom because in my personal life, I prefer to be a sub.

5. In an ideal world, how long would foreplay be?

An hour. Maybe two depending on my partner. I tend to take a while to orgasm from non-penetration, but it is possible if you are determined to do so, baby. If you add some dirty talk to our foreplay, I'm sure that hour could turn into less than 30min. I'm not that easy I like to drag things out let's foreplay for 3 hours.

6. What cause are you passionate about?

Bringing back an all Black production company. A home for us again. A place where we can feel special and has sparkly necklaces made for our accomplishments. Feel like we belong again. I have noticed we are picked one at a time for promotion. It saddens me. If one new Black girl comes out, we take the other one off the shelves. Or we can't have two amazing Black stars at the same time. When I started back in "06," we had Black production companies, Black model houses, all Black agencies. We have died down, and again they pick us one at a time. I want that era to be over. I want to make us present again. WE ARE HERE!!! And we are many as well.

7. What personal habit are you proudest of?

Cleanliness. I am very OCD. I'm not exactly the type that has to flick the light switch 8 times before walking in a room— it's more like if I'm dirty, and my house is a mess then that will be the reflection of my life. So, I tend to clean a lot. Which is a great habit to be proud of.

8. In what ways is the sex you have in your personal life like the sex you have on-camera, and in what ways is it different?

The passion I bring. I am a very sexual person. I am someone you can definitely feel comfortable with sexually and to share your fantasies with. As far as the sex being different on-camera compared to my personal life, I would have to say it is not a movie, baby—it definitely can get extremely intense but never unreal, unauthentic, or staged. There is no script, only passion. I don't have to open up for the camera. I can be as intimate and close to this person as I would like. I can enjoy sex uninterrupted. On set, it can be challenging to keep that chemistry. You may be directed to switch to do a position or pose for the camera. It's just not organic. Or not as organic. If a director lets you and your co-star work solely on your chemistry together and they move the camera around you, it can be an amazing scene. No cutting and disruption. It could be a much more intimate scene. It seems more personal when they allow us to do that. It is NOT often, though.

1. What do you think are your best personality traits and your best physical traits?

I am very forgiving, and I don't hold grudges. I keep my friends close, and my enemies even closer! My best physical trait would be my face; I think I'm a fairly handsome guy (oh, and I have a nice penis).

2. How can the adult industry change the world?

By being involved with movements and organizations that promote healthy and safe approaches to sex.

3. What are your guilty pop-culture pleasures?

I love the Backstreet Boys, *NSYNC, and Britney Spears!

4. What's something more people should try in bed?

Eating cum out of someone's ass and/or vag and then coming up and kissing them on the mouth.

5. If you could know the absolute and total truth to one question, what question would you ask?

"Do Donald Trump's tax returns provide proof of his treason?"

6. When in your life have you felt your biggest adrenaline rush?

When I was in Montreal last fall, and I did a free-fall and zip-lining.

7. Are you the same in bed in your private life as you are on camera?

No! Sex without cameras is more fun and special.

8. What celebrities would you like to meet and why?

Rihanna and Missy Elliott! They are the coolest artists ever! Their music is amazing, they are educated, extremely successful, they love strippers (me too), and both have beautiful and down to earth personalities!

1. What turns you on in your own vids?

The level of playfulness. Truth be told, I'm not a very serious person at all. I grew up being the class clown and I never truly grew out of it. Although I'm not very funny, I enjoy just how silly sex can be while still being incredibly sexy. It's nice to watch my vids and see just how much fun we're having pounding each other to smithereens.

2. What's a piece of sex advice that you think anyone can benefit from?

Put your finger in your butt. Just do it. Once. If you don't like it, move on. But if you do... well give me a call.

3. How do you show and express love to those close to you?

I think love can be expressed in many different ways. My most effective way is probably the most classic and cliché, a hug—just taking someone and embracing them in a big ol' bear hug until their toes lift off of the ground.

4. What are your top sex toys, and what toys have disappointed you?

I have this clear dildo that has little confetti inside of it. It's so pretty and so gay. I love that little dildo.

I have had some bad experiences with dildos, though. I cannot do soft dildos, which most dildos are. They almost feel like a packet of mashed potatoes in a sock when I try to use them. It's just not a good feeling.

With that being said, I also can't use dildos that are too hard and heavy. The weight pulling on my insides feels like a shelf with one too many books. Not fun.

5. Do you have a go-to fantasy or adult vid that excites you?

I love bondage scenes. There's something so incredibly sexy about someone being bound and gagged that gets me going every. single. time.

6. You can only eat one kind of pizza for the rest of your life... what's yours?

I'm going to sound the the world's most boring person but cheese. Cheese never fails me, and it never will.

7. If you could only keep five possessions, what would they be and why?

My first choice is mascara because my eyelashes are literally invisible, and I simply refuse to walk around with bald eyes.

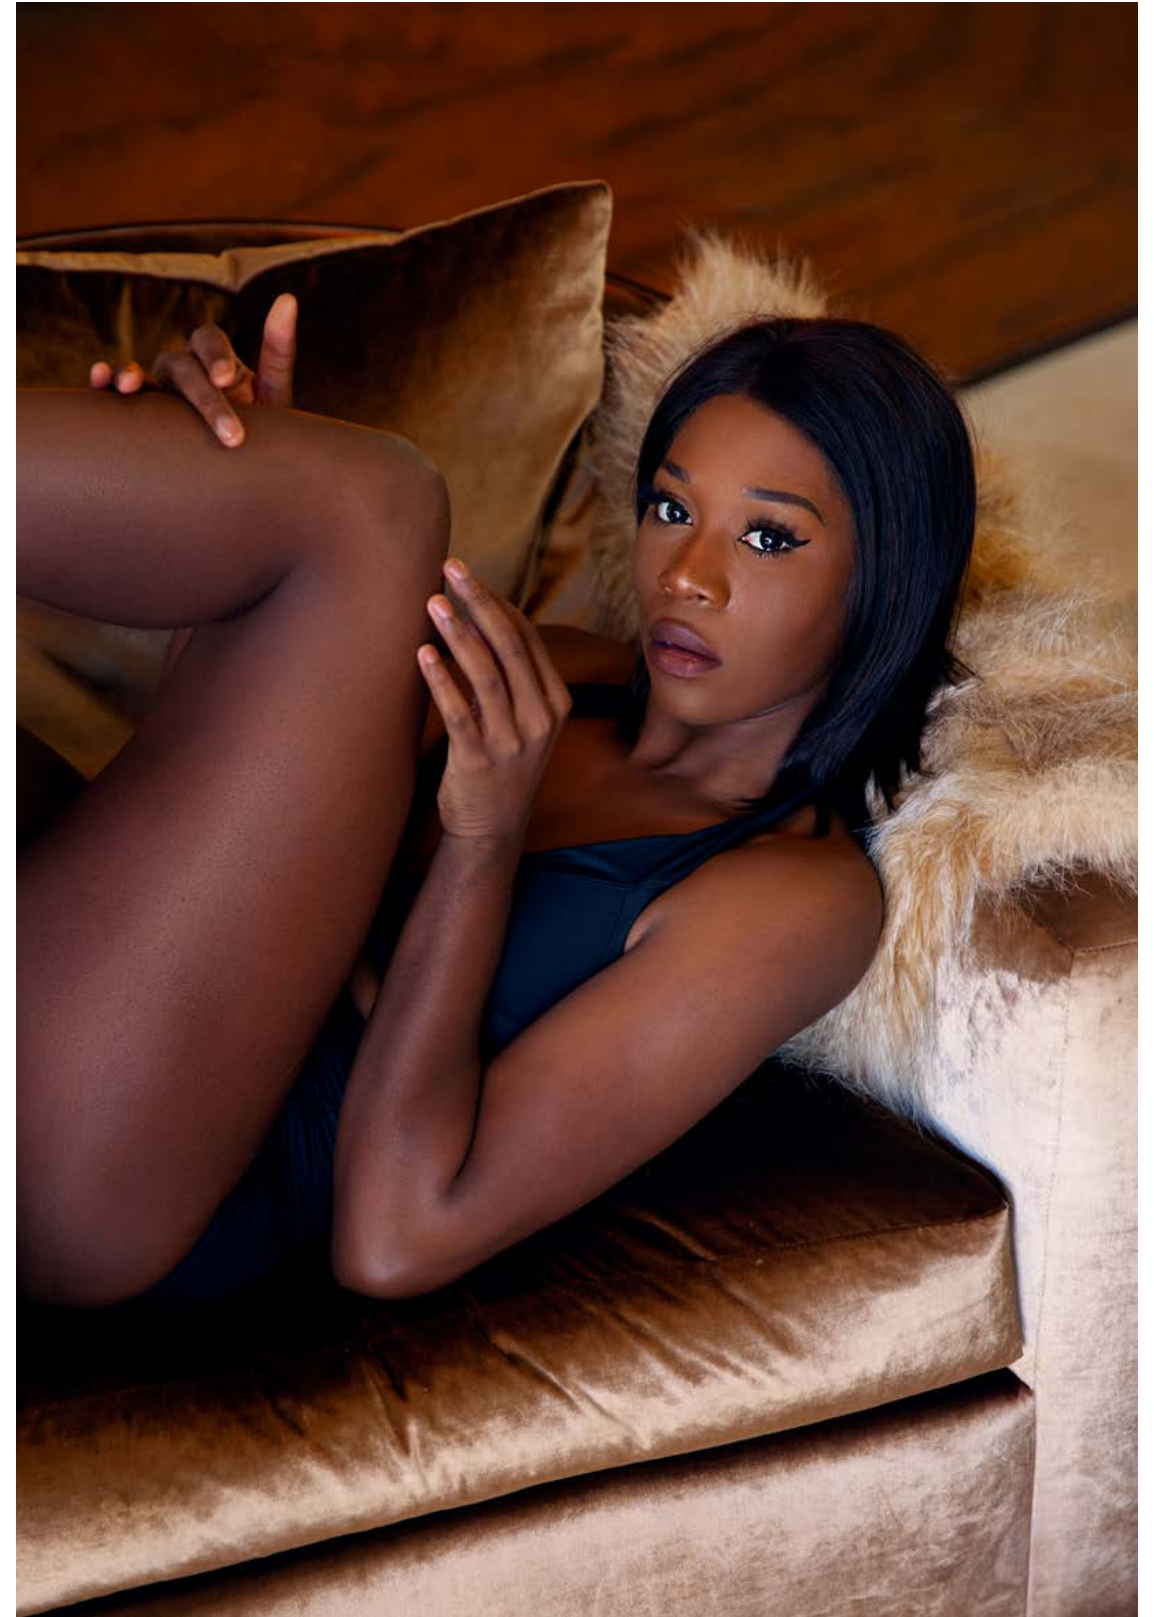

Then coffee beans, making coffee in the morning is the single most therapeutic thing that happens on any given day. Also, a coffee maker, to make the coffee, of course.

That brings me to my computer so I can watch my daily dose of nonsensical babbling on YouTube. And last but not least, my Nintendo Switch, to play Animal Crossing.

8. What is your biggest goal for this year?

My goal for this year is to make porn, I know, shocking. But it's something I feel like I have a knack for. Growing up and seeing just how little trans porn there was and seeing how little the girls looked like me, was kind of heartbreaking. I want to make adult entertainment for me by me. Porn that speaks to me, not just on a sexual level, but on a humanizing level as well.

1. What does love look like to you?

Love, to me, is reciprocation, effort, and genuine care for another person. Sometimes that may include putting them before yourself but not all the time. I am still learning much about love at my age, but so far, I know it can hurt sometimes, and that's ok! You live, you learn, you move on.

2. If your life was a movie what genre would it be?

It would be an early 00's style coming-of-age film (those are my favorite). One of the ones with all the stereotypical character types, hunk actors, and babe actresses. I think it'd definitely be a cult favorite that kids in their late teens to early 20s would resonate with for years to come.

I've always been sort of a misfit no matter the environment I was in, so I think my movie would be kind of a satire detailing types of people I've encountered. I would narrate, explaining my analysis of them, and why it probably didn't click with me. My story isn't nearly finished, so I think it'd be a little early for a recap biopic, and I'm not too sure on a name, but that's the direction I see it going in. I say almost every day to my friends that I need a reality show.

3. What do you hope to achieve in the adult industry within the next 5 years?

I hope to make some changes within the industry that effects the ethicality of it all, whether that be something specific for Black performers, royalties in mainstream porn, exploitation of young models, or directly speaking up about negative experiences.

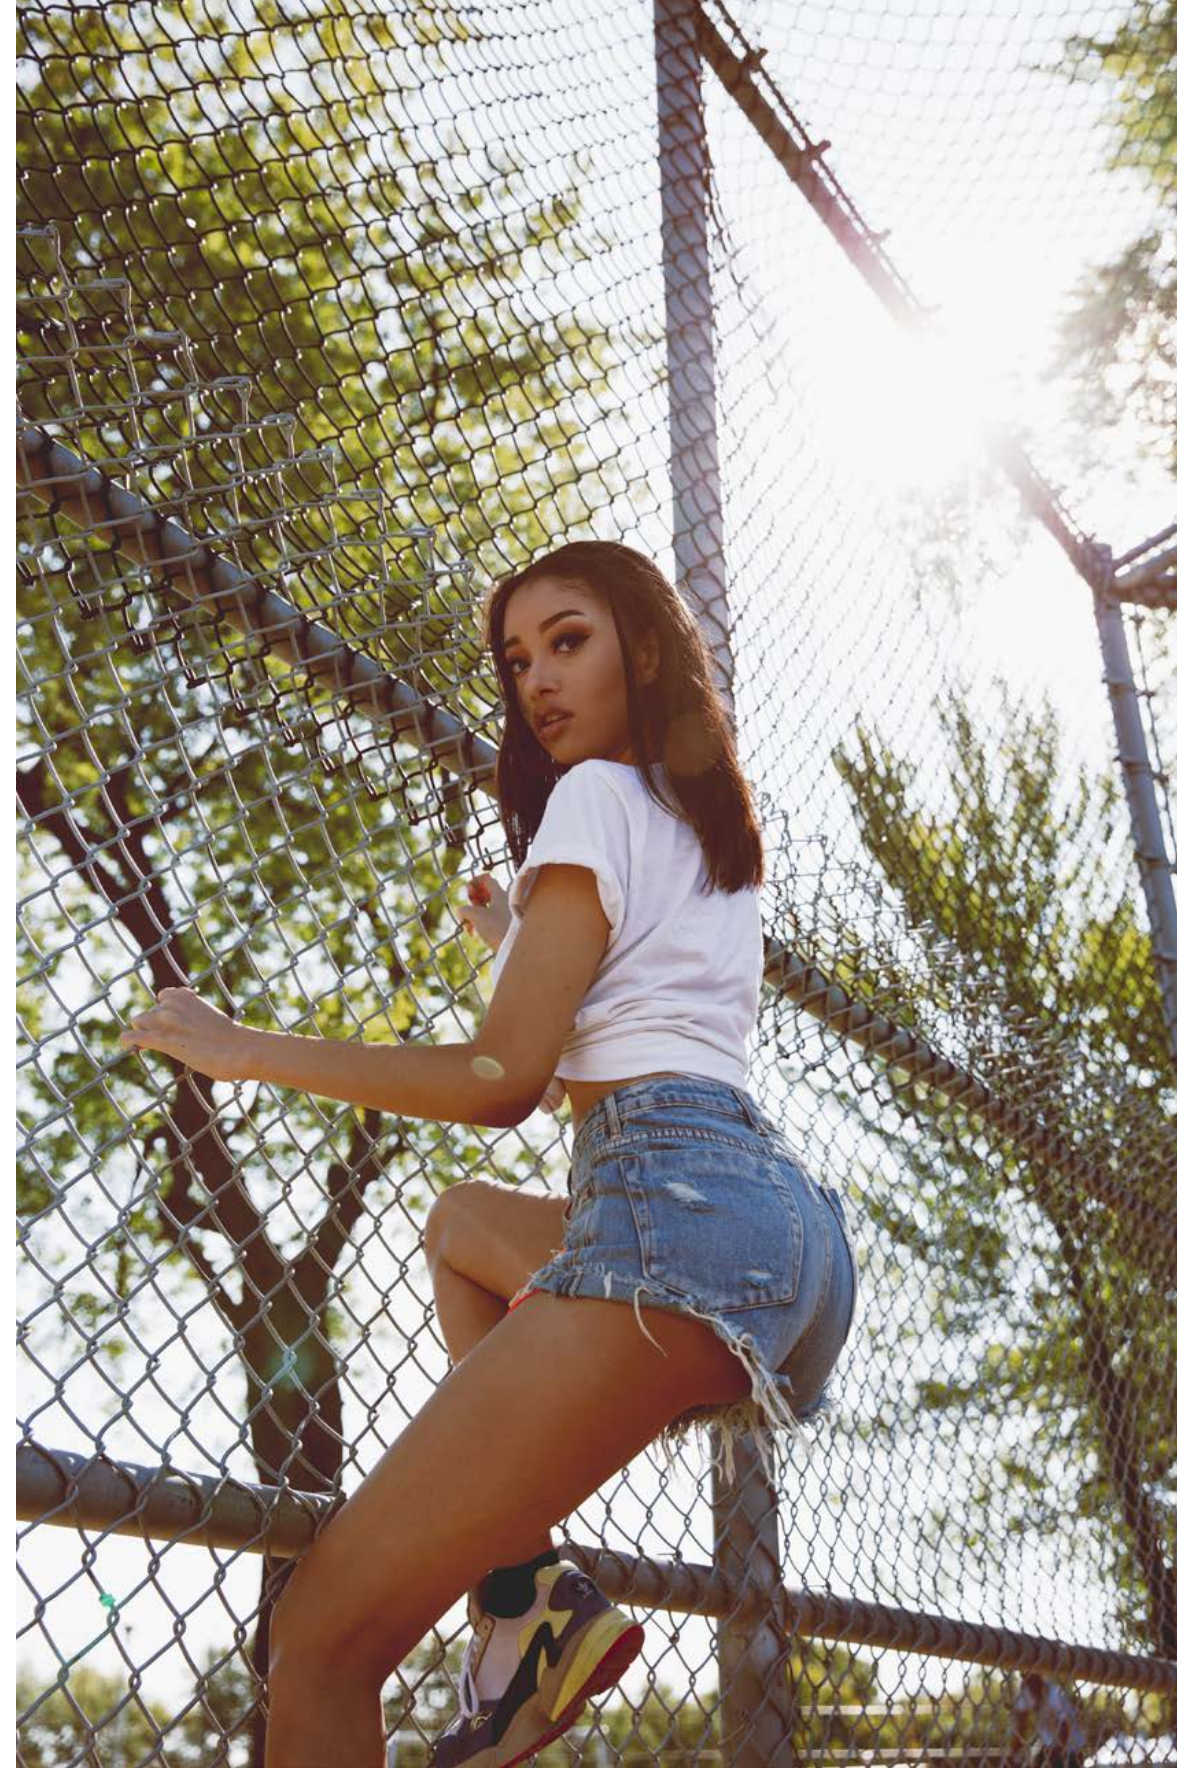

This industry is very behind and archaic in a lot of aspects because it's viewed as taboo, and not many have been ballsy enough to do anything about it in fear of losing work (which is entirely understandable but also the issue). Some things I've seen since joining that get swept under the rug and shrugged off would never be tolerated in a mainstream field. It's time to talk about it, and like I've said before, I don't mind being the one starting the conversation.

4. What's something that's not physical, that turns you on?

Nonchalant attitudes in men. It's the worst attraction to have because I also *need* affection and attention, but I love when a guy is not thirsty or "pressed for pussy." Maybe I love the chase?

5. What are your personal secrets for having great sex?

I've always said the most important thing during sex is both partners being focused on pleasing each other! There's nothing worse than boring sex because your partner is just trying to get a nut off and not really into it. For me, it's really exhilarating to feel that my partner knows my body and has me at their mercy and is doing precisely what they know makes me weak. It always ends well.

6. What is your ideal vacation?

To go to Bali, Indonesia, or Tokyo, Japan. I'm not too fond of traveling by myself, so I'd like to go with a significant other or a close friend. One of my goals is to spend more on experiences and not *things*. I'm big on memories and love documenting them, so I think it would be extremely cool to shoot content while I travel as well.

7. Do you believe in astrology? Does your sign fit you?

I don't know much about astrology and I'm not as into it as a lot of people seem to be. I know that I'm a Scorpio, and I think we're supposed to be sexual? Which is fitting, I guess, but I am also on the cusp of Libra, which people have told me my characteristics align with as well. It's not something I've really invested much time in other than when I'm checking the compatibility between me and some boy I'm going through a breakup with, haha.

8. Who is the sexiest person in the world?

I don't think I can pinpoint one person as the sexiest, mainly because I have so many different types, and my taste is always changing. I definitely had a huge white-boy phase most of my childhood because I had never been around them, and I always fell in love with actors from movies (i.e., my early-Macaulay-Culkin phase). Now that I'm older, I'm experiencing *many* more kinds of people and have grown a more significant attraction to women, especially, so I'm really not sure. Angelina Jolie is elite, though.

9. What makes you unique?

My experiences and my mindset. No aspect of my life has been conventional, and that has shaped me in every way possible. I am very grateful for the way things have played out for me because it's given me a different outlook and appreciation for things. I've always thought that if something were to happen to me, the greatest loss would be my mind. I find that in a lot of situations, I am processing and analyzing things differently from those around me. Although I come from a very segregated part of the south side of Chicago that has limited access to resources and the outside world, I believe I have managed to create experiences for myself that make me very intelligent and well-rounded.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Who are Black adult creators and performers you find inspiring?

I really love Natassia Dreams and Ana Foxx. They're gorgeous, amazing women, and they work so hard.

vanniall

What do you think is the greatest work of art by a Black artist?

Washington D.C., of course! The White House and the monuments there were built on the backs of slaves. Those are some of the greatest works of art in my eyes... my people did that!

Zario Travezz

What does Black History Month mean to you?

A safe place to represent our accomplishments as a Black community. This is a platform to express how we felt about our oppression. To remember what we went through. Black History Month is teaching the new generation what really happened to us. We must keep everyone educated, or what our ancestors did for us will not be remembered. We need to educate the new generation, so they never forget why they have the freedom they have. This is not how the world always was. Black History Month is to educate not only our culture but to educate everyone. Understand and celebrate. We made it!

Misty Stone

What changes would you like to see in the adult industry in regards to Black performers & creators?

I would love to see more Black representation in high-quality work that isn't centered around race and also Black feature films that are created *by* Black people and thus not fetish-y/inaccurate culturally. I would like to see an end to race fetish porn as well, but I understand that's wishful thinking. I very much wish Black performers and any performers of color didn't have to do so much race fetish work to get booked, it's a clear sign of privilege vs. marginalization between white performers and us. I would like to see talent agencies sign Black men who don't fit the historical and conventional look of a Black man in porn. It enables people only booking them for race fetish and women performers saying they "don't do IR."

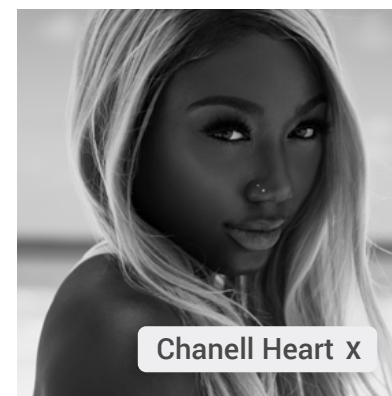

Scarlett Bloom

What do you think is the best way for people to celebrate and mark Black History Month?

Taking the time to learn and access the information from our ancestors and our own history. All people of color should make it a point to learn about powerful black leaders and the impact that they made on the world.
